LIFE (Learning In Faith Experiences)

HAPPY BIRTHDAY! Today is the Solemnity of Pentecost, the final day of the Easter season, also referred to as the birthday of the Church. It is the day we celebrate the grace of being filled with the Holy Spirit. I don't know about you, but I LOVE celebrating my birthday (and birthdays in general). My birthday affords me the opportunity to thank God, in a special way, for the gift of my life, reflecting upon how I am making use of this precious gift and also to make the necessary changes to live the wondrous life that God has given me. On Pentecost when the Spirit was sent forth by the risen Christ, all became different and set on fire! The Spirit didn't only come down on those who were speaking; but the tongues of fire came to rest on the listeners too, enabling all those present with the experience of Jesus. All were enflamed with the same burning love that drew them together: love (of and from God) was their driving force to radically live the gifts of the Holy Spirit. We are also called to live, not just receive, the gifts of the Holy Spirit in a radical way. We, like the first disciples, need to overcome our fears and come out from behind locked doors. We need to remember that through the indwelling Spirit given to each one of us, Jesus will guide, teach, comfort, challenge, defend and protect us. Through His Spirit, we will be (as were the disciples) empowered to do the works of our beloved Savior and spread the Gospel message - following in Jesus' footsteps but leaving our own footprints. "There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit; there are different forms of service but the same Lord; there are different workings but the same God who produces all of them in everyone. To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit." (1Cor.12:4-8) On this birthday celebration, how will you (re)commit to live out the gifts that you received from the Holy Spirit???
